

Basic Detail Report

For Your Country's Sake Today

Date

1944

Primary Maker

Harry Steele Savage

Medium

paper

Description

Poster, Political; Vertical color World War II propaganda poster titled, "For your country's sake today - // For your own sake tomorrow // Go to the nearest Recruiting Station // of the Armed Service of your choice" in white and pink text. The poster has a blue background with the silhouettes of four women in four different uniforms representing the women's branches of the U.S military, from left to right: Women's Army Corps (WAC), U.S. Naval Women's Reserve (WAVES), U.S. Marine Corps Women's Reserve and U.S. Coast Guard Women's Reserve (SPARS). Each woman has light skin, and their hair colors range from blond to black. The poster is signed by artist Steele Savage. The bottom reads, "P-75-RPB-4-20-44-540M // Recruiting Publicity Bureau // United States Army". The poster is mounted on a larger piece of cardstock paper. The border has two barcodes on the top and bottom that read, "Steele Savage // For Your Countrys Sake // 9548" and "# 9548", "18x25", and "TVP-601" written in pencil.

Dimensions

25 x 18 in. (63.5 x 45.7 cm)