Description

Photograph, Black and white; Horizontal modern reprint of two light-skinned men sitting at the helm of the submarine USS Growler. They are sitting in Growler's control room and attack center. The man on the left is looking at the camera and holding a cigarette in the hand that is on the wheel. He is wearing a deck jacket over his dungarees. A patch on the jacket is for the USS Halibut (SSGN-587). Another man in the background is wearing dungarees and holding a cigarette in his hand that is on the helm. There is an irregular white border around the image.
