The certificate is bordered with hieroglyphics. The bottom right corner reads "© 1958 Marine Pub. Co. // Box 6162 San Diego, Cal." Full text reads "To all Marines wherever ye may be: // and to all camel herders, sun worshippers, sheiks, sultans, caliphs, snake // charmers, thieves and beggars and other dwellers of the desert Greetings: // Know ye that on this 1st day of June, 1967, // The USS Intrepid (CVS-11) // crossed the Isthmus of Suez by transiting // the Suez Canal // be it remembered that // LTJG Phillip J. Mall, USN // has entered the land of temples, pyramids and sphinx and survived the // peril of "Khamsin" wind of fifty days. He is therefore found // worthy to be numbered as an honorable crew member who has been // duly initiated as a sun-parched creature. So by protection of the // Royal Palette he may be regarded as in good standing of the // Grand Order of the Ancient Mariners of the Desert // Pharoah [sic] Seti I // Prince of the Faithful // Ruler of the First Canal // John W. Fair // commanding".
