

Basic Detail Report

John F. Forsyth Papers

Date

1943-May 1948

Primary Maker

John F. Forsyth

Medium

paper, ink

Description

Extent: 2 folders The John F. Forsyth Papers include papers from the aircraft carrier USS Intrepid (CV-11) and the U.S. Navy during Forsyth's service during World War II. Forsyth served aboard Intrepid in 1944 as a SB2C Helldiver pilot with Bombing Squadron 18 (VB-18). Included in this collection are a training manual on flight quarters, recognition magazines, an issue of Intrepid's newspaper, and Navy work safety posters featuring the character Spoiler the mechanic. Flight Quarters. Training Division, Bureau of Aeronautics, U.S. Navy, 1943 Connolly, Stephen R. U.S. Army-Navy Journal of Recognition. U.S. War and Navy Departments, March 1944 Newspaper: Intrepid Then-Now-Forever, September 1944 Naval Aviation News, September 1946; May 1948 Work safety posters featuring the character Spoiler (27). U.S. Navy Training Division. n.d.