

Basic Detail Report

Keith Strickland Papers

Date

1963-1975

Primary Maker

D. Keith Strickland

Medium

paper, ink

Description

Extent: 1 folder, 1 logbook, 4 maps The Keith Strickland

Papers contain a logbook and maps from Strickland's time in the Navy and on USS Intrepid as an aviator in Attack Squadron 15 (VA-15). Other papers include a squadron newsletter, newspaper clippings covering VA-15, and an issue of the magazine Naval Aviation News. Logbook; July 1963-June 1975. 2 flight logbooks clipped together in one red leather cover. There are several notes inserted throughout both logbooks. July 1963-June 1975 (Cased Volume 38) Newsletter; Valion Newsletter (2). Fourth and fifth editions of the Valion Newsletter, for VA-15. Clippings, newspaper; 11 pages of photocopied newspaper clippings from various newspaper, all of news of VA-15. January 23, 1967 - November 6, 1967 Magazine; Naval Aviation News, March 1968 Maps; 4 flight maps of Vietnam, all with black and red ink annotations marking routes, surface to air missile (SAM) sites, and features pertinent to flight operations. - Gulf of Tonkin, focusing on Haiphong. This map is in 4 pieces and is heavily annotated. - Gulf of Tonkin, with annotations. - Hai Phong (Haiphong), with annotations. - Hai Duong, with annotations.