

Basic Detail Report

Thomas Craver Papers

Date

May 15, 1964–March 23, 1965

Primary Maker

Thomas Craver

Medium

TIFF

Description

Extent: 6 scans of archives Clipping, Newspaper; The Ketcher, May 15, 1964, pages 4-5. "Modern Medicine Men - Intrepid Style." Article about Intrepid's sick bay and those who work in it. There is a photo of Craver as well as a mention of him being in charge of the pharmacy. Award; Battle Efficiency Award letter, August 12, 1964. USS Intrepid. Award; Admiral Flatley Memorial Award letter,

Fiscal Year 1964, August 19, 1964 Stamp Cover; "First Manned Flight // Gemini // U.S. Navy Recovery Force" with a drawing of the Gemini capsule in the middle, stamped in purple ink. There are signatures surrounding the stamp that read "Gus Grissom", "Edwin N. George," "John Young," "Robert [illegible]," "Robert Trimi," "Edward A. [illegible]," and "Michael A. Bencher." This page is likely a color photocopy of the original as some of the signatures are cut off.