Description

Photograph, Color; Personal square image of a man, possibly Stan Moore, sitting in the post office. He is wearing a U.S. Navy enlisted working dungarees uniform. He has light skin and light hair and is smiling directly at the camera. He is seated on a metal folding chair in front of a metal cabinet with a coffee mug on it that says "Moore." There is a wall of white post office boxes behind him and a fan attached to the bulkhead. There is a pile of mail in front of him and manila envelopes on a shelf behind him. A blue metal ashtray is attached to the bulkhead. There is a white border around the image. "A Kodak Paper" watermark repeating on back. "Kodacolor Print // Made by Kodak // Jan. 68R" stamped in red ink on back. Donor note reads "Inside Post Office // Post Office Crew // Left to Right // Ron Duval // T.J. Nimocks // Art McLaughin // Dixon? // John? // Stan Moore // Karl Savage" handwritten in blue ink.
